Visitors can see the Governor’s Mansion State Historic Park in a whole new light -- “Lights Out.”

On October 29 and 30, these unique open-house style tours will feature tales of ghosts, bats, great pumpkins, coffin corners and Halloween adventures in the decorated darkened rooms of the mansion. Tours will be given from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for ages six to 16, and free for children five and under.

The Governor’s Mansion is located at 16th and H Streets in downtown Sacramento and was home to thirteen California Governors and their families from 1903 to 1967. The mansion features historic furnishings and Victorian architectural details.
